No. 7849-7910/ST/PC /:-

Dated: 10/7/2019

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is in reference to the communication received from Regional Director, Indian Council For Cultural Relations dated 1.07.2019 vide no. SSU/CH/950.

In this communication the council has specifically mentioned that all the fee/charges with respect to the students to be admitted under ICCR Scholarship Scheme shall be paid directly by ICCR. Therefore, no fees/charges shall received by the University from students. This communication further stated that due claim with respect to fees of such students shall be submitted by the University to ICCR for reimbursement to University.

In view of the aforesaid instructions of the Ministry, all departments/offices are requested not to charge any fee (including course fee/charges as well as eligibility fee), from the students as the same shall be claimed by the University from the ICCR through consolidated claim bill.

In order to enable this office to file claim with ICCR, the Information regarding students admitted in concerned departments under the aforesaid scheme shall be intimated to this office within 10 working days from the last due date of admission.

Please ensure the due compliance of the aforesaid instructions.
